

Using technology safely

- You should never tell any body what your password is otherwise they will hack you.
- If you ever get any messages you should always tell your parent otherwise you may see some swearing or inappropriate pictures.
- You should never leave a device with you when your asleep because if you do you have a chance of it catching fire.
- Never text or ring while you are driving or you could have car accident.

by Brandon